

1 Amend 2 Cal. Code Regs. section 18521 to read:

2
3 § 18521. Establishment of Separate Controlled Committee for Each Campaign
4 Account.

5
6 (a) A candidate who is required to file a statement of organization for a
7 controlled committee pursuant to Government Code section 84101 shall establish a
8 separate controlled committee and campaign bank account for each specific office
9 identified in statements filed by the candidate pursuant to Government Code section
10 85200 and 2 Cal. Code Regs. section 18520.

11 (b) Candidates, Other than Candidates for Elective State Office: A controlled
12 committee and campaign bank account established for a specific office may be 13 redesignated as a campaign bank account for a future election if:

- 14 (1) The future election is for the same elective office;
- 15 (2) The funds in the campaign bank account/committee are not considered
16 “surplus campaign funds” as defined in Government Code section 89519;
- 17 (3) The candidate amends the Statement of Organization for the committee to 18 reflect the redesignation for the future election;
- 19 (4) The candidate files a new statement, signed under penalty of perjury, of 20 intention to be a candidate for the specific future election; and
- 21 (5) Redesignation of committees/bank accounts is not otherwise prohibited by 22 law.

23 (c) Redesignation by candidates for elective state office is prohibited at the state 24 level.
